PROMOTION OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY OF MEN AND WOMEN
REPORT

The Department of Computer Science organized the Seminar 'Promotion of equal opportunity of Men and Women' on 24th June 2021(Thursday, 2:00 PM). He emphasized the means of advancing gender equality in everyday life. They include keeping an eye out for indicators of domestic violence, assisting parents and mothers, rejecting chauvinistic and racist views, assisting women in gaining power, listening to one another and reflecting, hiring a diverse workforce, and paying (and demanding) the same wage for equal work. He spoke about the value of giving men and women equal chances. An example of an equal opportunity employment issue is wages. He came to the conclusion that the socially constructed roles and duties that societies view as being fitting for men and women are described by the term gender. A talk on Human Empowerment was given by Mr. V. Murugesan, Head, Associate Professor, Department of Computer Science, VLBJCAS.

Outcome: This awareness raised awareness of students and Indian citizens' rights. Gender equality prevents violence against women and girls. This session was to teach our students how to act correctly in public.
