General Insurance and Data

- General insurance is a data intensive industry.
- The basis of insurance is "probabilities".
- Data plays a vital part in pricing of insurance products.
- Technology has revolutionized the way data is acquired, stored and used for analysis.

Activity Report

Date:24.03.2022

To celebrate & Commemorate World Theatres Day the Department of Visual Communication and English jointly organized Guest Lecture on "Theatrics" on 23.03.2022 (Wednesday) between 10.00 a.m. and 12.00 noon. In this event, Mrs.J.Sudhapriya, Head, Department of Visual Communication, VLBJCAS welcomed the gathering and introduced the guests of honour. Dr.K.Ramamurthi, Principal, VLBJCAS, delivered the presidential address to the students. In his speech he explained the impact of music and arts in human life. Mr.Ravichandran Aravindhnan, Theatre Artist and Short Story Writer was the guest of the day. He shared his life experience in a vivid manner through his body language, voice modulation and actions. He highlighted dramatic activities which has a greater impact on human lives. He stated how dramatic activities help students to have a greater inclination to take risks and to be more open-minded. He spotlighted that all human beings are born with innate quality of acting. He also added that individuality, self-love, maintaining the originality in acting have more impact in personal life. He performed a skit with wind flute and also with other musical elements. Through his various dramatic skills he brought all the emotions together to the audience and also he transmitted the social message to the save trees. He tinted the scope of theatrical arts and also suggested the students to develop interpersonal as well as intrapersonal skills. He specified the nuances of dramatic skills in learning and teaching. He explained various responsibilities of students to create the impact of poor people's suffering in society and also to find some solution through drama. He explained the unique features of script writing and short story writing. He enthusiastically motivated our students to become a successful person in life. He suggested the students to overcome stage fear, building up confidence, setting up goals and effective steps towards achieving it. He also shared his views on media, cinema which has huge brunt on many young minds. Students raised few questions on dramatic skills and got the clarification by the guests of honour. This session ended with vote of thanks proposed by Dr.G.Hemalatha, Head, Department of English.
