6.0 Attendance Requirements for appearing for Comprehensive Examinations

Students must regularly attend their classes. They will be permitted to appear for the Comprehensive Examinations (CE) only if they secure minimum of 75% of Attendance during the Semester.

If the student has Attendance of 65% to 74%, the Principal has the discretion to condone and permit the student to appear for the Comprehensive Examinations on reasonable grounds.

A student's attendance which ranges between 50% and 64% will not be permitted to write the Comprehensive Examinations of the Current Semester. However he/she will be permitted to write exams in the next semester only if the lack of attendance is compensated in that Semester. In case, he/she is unable to compensate the lack of attendance, he/she has to re-do the course by joining the previous semester. The Internal Assessment marks earned by the student will have no value and he/she has to earn his/her Internal Assessment marks afresh.

The opportunity of carrying forward the lack of attendance is possible only once during the entire period of course of study. This combination of lack of attendance can be done only between subsequent semesters, i.e., 1 and 2, or 2 and 3, or 3 and 4, or 4 and 5, or 5 and 6.

If a student has availed the opportunity to compensate once and lacks attendance in any of the subsequent semesters, he/she has to re-do that semester in the next year by joining as a fresh candidate. For example, if the student has to re-do the third semester (July-November), he/she has to be at home during December-May Semester and has to rejoin during July-November), session next year.

In the case of a student's attendance falling below 50% in any semester, he/she will not be permitted to appear for the Comprehensive Examination. Further he/she will not be permitted to go to the next Semester, since he/she cannot compensate the deficiency of Attendance in the next Semester, even if he/she attends 100% of the classes. In such case, the student has to redo the course, by joining the semester, during which the attendance was lost.
